Privacy Policy

Electronic Metalwork Services is committed to protecting your privacy and we take our responsibilities regarding the security of user information very seriously. This Privacy Statement tells you about how we comply with the GDPR data protection requirements and is effective from 22 May 2018.

Security of the Information You Provide

We are committed to ensuring that your information is kept securely. In order to prevent unauthorised access or disclosure we have put in place suitable physical, electronic and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect.

If you choose to provide us with any information by which you can be identified, it will be used only to process your enquiry regarding the services we provide.

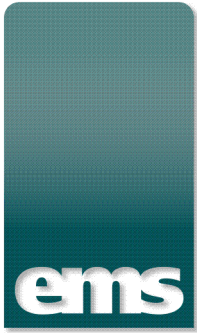

We will not sell, distribute or lease your personal information to third parties unless we have your permission or are required to do so by law. If you want your details to be removed from our system contact us by email or in writing.

If you believe that any information we have about you is incorrect or incomplete, please email or write to us. Any incorrect information will be corrected promptly. You can also request a copy of any personal information we hold about you.

Our website (www.electronicmetalwork.co.uk) does not use cookies.

Your Consent to Use the Information Sent Online

By sending information to us using the online email form published on this website, you consent to the collection and use of this information by us for the purposes stated above.
